VOTING BY WAY OF A POLL

Shareholders were informed that the Chairman of the Meeting had been appointed as proxy by some shareholders to vote in accordance with their instructions. All voting at general meetings of listed companies must be done by way of a poll.

If a shareholder was attending in person or was validly appointed proxy for the AGM, he or she would have been handed the poll voting slips at the registration desk when signing-in earlier.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a shareholder was attending in person and had already appointed one or more proxies to attend the AGM, and such shareholder decided to exercise his or her right to vote in respect of any of shares, his or her proxies must not vote in respect of those shares.
